The performance of students in the HSC is reported in bands ranging from Band 1 (lowest) to Band 6 (highest).

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and histories are one of the important cross—curricular priorities in the Australian curriculum. At Lucas Heights Community School, all stages of the syllabus incorporate Aboriginal perspectives, culture and history.

RAM Aboriginal monies were received by the school in 2015 and were used to support students in their learning in the classroom through the engagement of additional Student Learning Support Officer (SLSO) time. These staff members work individually and in groups to support students' literacy and numeracy needs, win a particular focus on addressing performance in external measures such as NAPLAN. All students identified as Aboriginal have a personalised learning pathway plan which is created collaboratively with the student and ratified with the parent at parent teacher evenings or subject selection nights.

Multicultural and anti-racism education

Safe Schools 7–12 – LHCS once again led by example in best practice inclusiveness by being the fourth school in the state to become a Safe School. Our work in rewriting our uniform policy and providing a safe and caring learning environment for all students was recognised with one of our delivering a formal speech to state and federal members of parliament on supportive learning environments. Lucas Heights Community Schools has 2 ARCO staff members – Ms Wille and Ms Papathanasiou.
